

SITE INFORMATION
NEW CONTRIBUTION OF ACADEMIC, THEORY,
NEW POINTS OF SCIENCE AND PRACTICE OF THE THESIS

1. General Information

Thesis: State management of the prevention and fight against drugs in Vietnam during the integration period

Speciality: Public Administration; Code: 60348201

Fellow Full name: Phan Thi My Hanh

Full name of guidelines: 1. Associate Professor-Dr. Vu Trong Hach; 2. Dr. Vu Quang Vinh

Training institutions: the National Academy of Public Administration

2. Contents pages summary information

One is, the thesis of state management concept on the prevention of drug activity and operating abide by state agencies or social organizations authorized by the State, was conducted on the basis of law, to law enforcement in order to perform the functions of state management in the field of prevention and fight against drugs; State management on the prevention of drug use is a major task in the state management of social order and safety.

Secondly, the thesis made 7 criteria to evaluate the effectiveness and efficiency of State management on the prevention of drug include: (i) institutional criteria prevention, drugs; (ii) criteria for organizational structure of the prevention of drug; (iii) criteria for staff capacity and public servant to perform the tasks of prevention and drugs; (iv) criteria for the prevention of and fight against drugs; (V) criteria for service resources for the prevention and fight against drugs; (vi) criteria for international cooperation on anti-narcotics; (vii) the criteria for the results of prevention drugs.

Thirdly, the thesis evaluate the effectiveness and efficiency of State management on the prevention of drug through 7 fields: (i) Develop policies and strategies, counter-narcotics; (ii) The system of legal documents; (iii) The organization of the human resources working on prevention and fight against drugs; (iv) Rehabilitation and aftercare management; (v) To organize the prevention of and fight against drug-related crime; (vi) carry out education on the prevention of drug; (vii) international cooperation on the prevention of drug.

Fourthly, the thesis summarized the state of management experience on the prevention of drug countries in Asia can be applied in Vietnam, including: (i) The experience of Thailand (Business held offices experimental drug prevention drug; experience perfecting the state management on the prevention of drug; experience developing clean and replaced drug crops; experience and drug addiction detoxified management; experience combating drug crime); (ii) The Chinese experience (experience perfecting the state management on the prevention of drug; experience in drug rehabilitation and management after treatment).

Fifthly, the thesis has proposed system solutions to enhance the effectiveness and efficiency of State management on the prevention of drugs in Vietnam during the integration period, including: (i) Improving governance institutions state on the prevention of drug; (ii) To strengthen the State management apparatus on the prevention of drug from the central to local levels; (iii) To promote the role and responsibilities of agency information systems, communications and political organization-society at all levels in the propagation prevention drugs; (iv) Training resources prevent and combat drugs; (v) To improve the effectiveness of drug treatment; (vi) Removal and replacement of plants containing narcotic substances; (vii) Strengthening international cooperation on the prevention of drug.

Hanoi, February 25, 2016

THE GUIDE

GRADUATES

Prof. Dr. Vu Trong Hach Dr Vu Quang Vinh Phan Thi My Hanh